

Human Resources Policy

1. Introduction

This document defines the Human Resources policies and procedures applied within the company.

The objective of this policy is to establish clear guidelines for employee management, workplace practices, and HR processes.

2. Recruitment and Hiring Policy

The company follows a structured recruitment process to select qualified candidates.

The recruitment process includes:

1. Job position definition.
2. Candidate application review.
3. Interviews with HR and managers.
4. Final candidate selection.
5. Employment contract preparation.

All recruitment decisions must follow company values and equal opportunity principles.

3. Employee Onboarding

New employees must complete an onboarding process.

The onboarding process includes:

- Introduction to company policies.
- Account creation and access setup.
- Security awareness training.
- Introduction to team members.
- Review of job responsibilities.

HR provides support during the first weeks of employment.

4. Performance Management

Employee performance is evaluated regularly.

Performance reviews include:

- Achievement of objectives.
- Technical skills.
- Team collaboration.
- Professional development needs.

Managers provide feedback and define improvement plans when necessary.

5. Compensation and Benefits

Employees receive compensation according to their position and responsibilities.

Company benefits may include:

- Health insurance.
- Paid leave.
- Training opportunities.
- Professional development programs.

Employees can contact HR for information about benefits.

6. Attendance and Working Time

Employees must respect working schedules.

Employees must:

- Arrive on time.
- Inform managers about absences.
- Follow attendance procedures.

Repeated attendance issues may require a discussion with HR.

7. Employee Leave Management

Employees can request different types of leave:

- Annual leave.
- Sick leave.
- Parental leave.
- Emergency leave.

Leave requests must be submitted through the HR system and approved according to company procedures.

8. Workplace Ethics

Employees must maintain a respectful and professional workplace.

Employees are expected to:

- Respect colleagues.
- Avoid discrimination and harassment.
- Protect confidential information.
- Follow company rules.

9. Employee Termination Process

Employment termination must follow company procedures.

The process includes:

1. Official notification.
2. Knowledge transfer when required.
3. Return of company equipment.
4. Account deactivation.
5. Final administrative procedures.

10. Document Information

Document name:

Human Resources Policy

Version:

1.0

Owner:

Human Resources Department

Last update:
September 2026